1. The Chinese Communists will call a special meeting of the Asian Cominform (sic) in September 1951, after the Japanese peace treaty is signed, to form an Asian People's Liberation Army; thus putting all Communists in Asia under Chinese Communist control. The Chinese wish to make the North Korean Army part of the Asian People's Liberation Army's Northeast Command under LIN Biao. This new organization is to be called the Free Asian People's Collective Resistance League. The Japanese part of it is to be called the Japanese People's Liberation Fighting Front.
2. The Soviets are aware of this plan and are urging North Korea to cooperate with the Chinese.
